

Admission to Post Graduate Medical and Dental Courses in the State of Maharashtra - NEET PG/MDS 2017
Personal Counselling Round: Instructions to Candidates

19th May 2017 to 26th May 2017

1. During the Counselling, Eligible candidates will enter the hall along with all Original Documents as per their All India NEET 2017 merit and day fixed for the counselling. Candidate will be informed regarding the procedure to be followed for this round.
2. Original Documents will be verified by scrutiny officer and eligibility of the candidates will be ascertained.
3. All eligible candidates will undergo personal counselling. During this process candidate will be shown all the seats available at his/her merit position. Candidate will choose a seat available at his/her merit and choice. Selection letter will be issued to the candidate. Once a selection letter is issued, it is irrevocable and will not be cancelled. Since it is a continuous process, it is not possible to cancel the seat once allotted.
4. If a candidate wishes to leave at this stage and does not wish to take any seat, he/she can leave the counselling. Before leaving the hall, candidate should submit his/her token to the counselling counter issued at the beginning of this process.
5. If candidate is already admitted during first round conducted by Competent Authority, State CET Cell, Maharashtra State, Mumbai, he/she will go to the counter of the respective counter of the Institution where he/ she has been admitted during first round and collect the Original Documents. Candidate will go to the counter of the Institution where he/she has been selected, complete the formalities of admission by submitting the original documents and payment of necessary fees.
6. It is advised to all the candidates that during the personal counselling, he/she should have a list of Institution and Subject ready according to their choice. Till the candidate reaches for personal counselling round at his/her merit position, while waiting in the hall real time available seats position and real time allotment of a seat will be displayed on the screen. This will help the candidate for preparing a list of Institution of subject according to his/her choice. Such a list will enable the candidate to select a seat of his/her choice in a shortest possible time, and complete the process of counselling in the stipulated time.

*****